

Board of Directors

Carolyn Webb de Macía

Board Member

Carolyn Webb de Macías is an independent director elected in June 2019. Ms. Webb de Macías is Chair of the Equity, Sustainability and Environmental Justice Committee and is a member of the Compensation Committee.

Ms. Webb de Macías is a community leader with an extensive career in public policy and higher education. Ms. Webb de Macías currently serves as Chief of Staff and Senior Advisor to the City of Los Angeles Mayor Karen Bass. She is also Board Chair for the Partnership for Los Angeles Schools, a non-profit organization that manages 20 schools through a Memorandum Of Understanding with the Los Angeles Unified School District, and is a former Member of the Board and previous chair of the Community Coalition of South Los Angeles, a community education and advocacy organization.

Previously, Ms. Webb de Macías served in the office of Elementary and Secondary Education in the US Department of Education as an appointee of President Barack Obama from 2010-2012. From 1997 – 2008, Ms. Webb de Macías served in various roles at the University of Southern California including adjunct faculty member in the USC Rossier School of Education, associate provost from 1997 – 2002 and vice president for external relations from 2002 – 2008. Upon retirement from USC in 2008, Ms. Webb de Macías was granted the title of Vice President Emeritus. From 2005 - 2006, Ms. Webb de Macías served as Special Advisor to Mayor Antonio Villaraigosa. From 1991 – 1997 Ms. Webb de Macías served as chief of staff for Los Angeles City Councilman Mark Ridley-Thomas.

Ms. Webb de Macías' strong record of community service includes previous roles as founding member of the Board for the Alliance for Regional Collaboration to Heighten Educational Success (ARCHES), member of the Boards of the Los Angeles African American Women's Public

